Chicago Police Sued

CHICAGO—Roy Lewis Ries Jr. of Levittown, Pa., a student at McCormick Theological Seminary, has filed a suit in Federal court asking $1,250,000 in damages from the City of Chicago for injuries suffered in the disorders during the Democratic National Convention.

The suit contends that Chicago policemen struck Ries with rifles during an antiwar demonstration in Lincoln Park. It said Ries was in the hospital for 12 days for treatment of head cuts.
